

William Paterson University
Department of Languages and Cultures

THE MEMORY OF THE CIVIL WAR IN SPAIN: FROM FRANCO YEARS TO CURRENT TIMES

DR. GONZALO PASAMAR

Department of Modern History, University of Zaragoza, Spain

Tuesday, March 5 @ 6:30 pm at Library Auditorium

Dr. Pasamar is a Professor of History at University of Zaragoza. He is the author of several books, including Apología and Criticism: Historians and the History of Spain, 1500-2000 (2010), Diccionario Akal de historiadores españoles contemporáneos, siglos XIX, y XX (2002, with I. Peiró Martín); Historiografía e ideología en la postguerra española: La ruptura de la tradición liberal (1991); La Historia Contemporánea: aspecto teóricos e historiográficos (2000). He is the Editor of the on-line, trilingual Journal, Historiografías, revista de historia y teoría (<http://www.unizar.es/historiografias/>). He is also collaborator of the important group of Historia a Debate and has published tens of essays in the most important Spanish journals such as Arbor, Perspectiva Contemporánea, Studium, Manuscripts, Historia y Crítica, Hispania: Revista Española de Historia, Memoria y civilización and many others.

Hosted by the Colleges of Humanities and Social Sciences and the William Paterson Alumni Association